FAITHFUL DOGS ADMITTED

Madison County Institution Rules Are Broken in Order to Please William Morgan, a Patient.

One of the rules of the Madison County Hospital is to be broken to-day to gratify the wishes of a patient, and two dogs will e domiciled at the institution until such time as their master recovers sufficiently to take his departure. The patient is William Morgan, who was injured yesterday morning by falling into a fire at Nameoki, a sma. station on the Wabash in the bottom. Morgan is a cripple, both his legs having een cut off between the knees and hips. He travels about the country selling small artiles and is drawn in a small wagon he fash-oned himself. The strange outfit last month worked its way from Kansas City across Missouri to the Mississippi and to Venice.

Venice,
At Nameoki yesterday morning, while
At Nameoki yesterday morning, while Morgan was engaged in the preparation of breakfast, one of the short crutches he used broke and precipitated him into the fire. Before he could extricate himself his face and abdomen were seriously burned.
His predicament was discovered and he was forwarded to the hospital by Supervisor Helnemann. The surgeons consider his condition serious.

lorwarded to the hospital by Supervisor Heinemann. The surgeons consider his condition serious.

Yesterday afternoon Morgan sent for Superintendent John Ost and asked that his faithful dumb friends, the two dogs, be permitted to stay with him. The Superintendent explained that it was against the rules, but Morgan said that they were not allowed there he would leave, no matter what his condition might be.

The Superintendent finally decided to stretch a point, and the dogs were brought up from the Bottom. Morgan had $10 and will pay for their keeping. He says that they are Arabian dogs, and that they are his protectors as well as servants. He is endeavoring to make his way to Jersey County.

Frank Kelly Causes Arrest of "Charles Dodson and Wife." A couple, who gave their names a Charles Dodson and wife, were arrested by the East St. Louis police yesterday on complaint of Frank Kelley of East St. Louis, who alleged that they had robbed him of his gold watch and $60 late Sunday

The couple are in the employ of a show-The couple are in the employ of a snow-man, who has been exhibiting a peculiarly constructed wagon. Kelley alleges that while looking at the wagon he was relieved of his valuables. He immediately swore out warrants, and yesterday morning the couple was arrested.

They gave bond and will be given a pre-liminary hearing this morning. Both deny the alleged theft. None of the property was found on the couple.

Switchman Run Over and Killed. George Alborn, a switchman, employed by the Wabash Railroad Company, was run over and killed by his engine in what is known as the "lower yards" yesterday aft-ernoon. His body was taken to Kurrus's morgue, where Coroner McCracken held an inquest yesterday afternoon. A verdict of accidental death was returned.

New York, Aug. 19.—Live poultry receipts to day were 7 cars Western and 1 car Southwestern. Jobbers carried over 6 cars, mostly fowis, from last week, and with over 30 cars in transit the market opened rather tame. Jobbers were not willing to concede over 12½c on fowis under weak Western advice, but receivers held out firmly for 12c, but as market was not settled at a late hour quotations are omitted.

Dressed poultry receipts to-day were 732 pkgs. The fresh receipts were not heavy, but as most of the jobbers carried some of their last week's purchases unsold, the demand was of moderate volume and there was an entire absence of any speculative feeling. Invoices in transit are not much heavier than last week, with the proportion of fowis lighter from all sections, except Jows, which is sending few chickens here as yet. The market was about sustained at 12c on average scaled broilers and 15c on the average run of dry-picked, with a few selections of either bringins the usual premium. Dry-picked fowis, when choice, were held firmly at 16c, but when receivers could move a fair-sized lot of springs, they did not hesitate to shade fowis to 13½c; latter was about all that scalded could demand. Presh-killed turkeys steady. A few desirable large Western spring ducks sold pretty well, but amail and thin not wanted.

New York, Aug. 10.—Eggs—Receipts to-day 7.—222 cases. The demand was good for all sorts of fresh-gathered eggs, and as receipts were light, prices were firm, with an advance on fair grades, which sold at lic. On fire qualities sales were based on the quotations on firsts. The business in regular packings was at 175716 as attremes for desirable goods. The feeling was stronger on storage stock, but jobbers, as a ryle, worked on their own goods, and there were just few sales worthy of note.
